

Report on Women's Day Celebration at College of Education

Event Title: - “Is There a Woman Empowerment in the Present Era?”

- ❖ Date of Event: 8th March 2025
- ❖ Location : S.L. College of Education, Women's College of Education,
- ❖ Motivational Speaker : Mrs. Harshada Darekar
- ❖ Program Coordinators : Ms. Amrita Achantani, Ms. Suvarna Ahire
- ❖ Principal : Mr. Sanjay Shirsath
- ❖ Audience : 28 students attended

Introduction

The Women's Day celebration at S.L. College of Education was conducted with the objective of recognizing and honouring the achievements of women in today's world. The event took place on [Insert Date] and was graced by a motivational speech from Mrs. Harshada Darekar, a renowned figure known for her contributions to women's rights and empowerment.

Program Overview

The event began with a warm welcome by the program coordinators, Ms. Amrita Achantani and Ms. Suvarna Ahire, who introduced the theme for the day: *"Is There a Woman Empowerment in the Present Era?"* The discussion was aimed at engaging students in critical thinking about the strides women have made in various fields and whether the modern world truly reflects the empowerment of women.

Keynote Speaker: Mrs. Harshada Darekar

Mrs. Harshada Darekar, the keynote speaker, provided an inspiring and thought-provoking speech. She spoke at length about the challenges women face in today's world, the progress that has been made in terms of education, employment, and social acceptance, and how true empowerment goes beyond access to opportunities. Mrs. Darekar emphasized the importance of self-empowerment, the need for societal support, and the role of women in shaping a more inclusive future.

Audience Engagement

The speech was followed by an interactive Q&A session, where more than 28 students present at the event asked insightful questions about the current state of women's empowerment and shared their personal reflections. This session sparked thoughtful conversations about gender equality, career advancement for women, and the importance of breaking societal barriers.

Role of the Principal

Under the guidance of Principal Mr. Sanjay Shirsath, the event was a success. Mr. Shirsath's constant support and encouragement helped in ensuring that the program was impactful and ran smoothly. His leadership provided a platform for students to learn and engage in meaningful dialogue about women's empowerment.

Conclusion

The Women's Day celebration at the College of Education was an eye-opening experience for the students, giving them a deeper understanding of women's empowerment in the present era. Mrs. Harshada Darekar's motivational speech inspired many students to reflect on their own lives and take proactive steps in empowering themselves and others.

Red rose was distributed among all the women present over there as a token of love and appreciation.

This event not only celebrated women but also provided a space for young women to envision their roles in society and take pride in their potential.

Glimpses

